

EPM Strategic Assessment

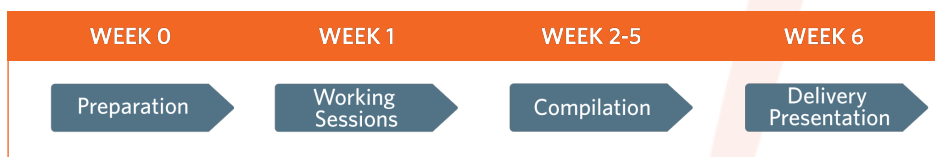

Your Roadmap to Modernize and Transform the Office to Finance

It is more important than ever to optimize your financial systems and maximize technology investments. Yet many businesses are struggling with how to navigate the maze of decision trees for their Enterprise Performance Management (EPM) and Analytics paths. They are left with a limited understanding of what is working and not working with current financial processes, lacking access to critical information necessary for better and more timely decisions.

Our team of experts can help you establish an effective roadmap for running a successful business. With an EPM Strategic Assessment from Argano, we analyze your unique EPM & Analytics requirements across the organization and develop effective processes for:

- Planning and Budgeting
- Forecasting
- Scenario Modeling
- Close and Consolidations
- Reporting and Analysis
- Data Governance
